

Joanne Colville
Moffat, ON

Nominated as ONTARIO BREEDER DIRECTOR

Renowned equally for her horsemanship and business savvy, Joanne Colville adds Event Coordinator for OSAS to her impressive list of accomplishments. Colville currently owns and operates High Stakes Farm, a 30-acre property specializing in breeding, boarding, rehabilitation and racing stock. The Moffat, ON operation serves as headquarters for her booming High Stakes sale services.

Under Joanne's leadership, High Stakes is now the largest Standardbred consignment company in Canada and a major player at yearling sales on both sides of the border. Joanne is now also a director of Standardbred Canada and the Central Ontario Standardbred Association.

Ever ambitious and dedicated to the equine industry, Colville's past experience includes corporate roles within Standardbred Canada and the Woodbine Entertainment Group, where she also served as the full-time parade marshall for six years.

Having ridden in every discipline, and won numerous awards for speed events, Colville also worked at the Hendervale Equestrian Complex covering the Olympic Trials.

Regarded as one of the hardest-working and smartest-working individuals in the industry, Colville is passionate about OSAS and the industry it serves.
